BIBLIOTHECA·BODLEIANA·

ADVERTISEMENT.

BEſides the Books expreſſed in the Catalogue, there are to be ſold at the ſaid place, a Great Number of Sticht Books or Pamphlets, together with about an Hundred Volumes of Curious Tracts bound together, the which, ſuch Gentlemen as pleaſe may peruſe, and buy thence what they deſire.

TO THE READER.

TO Multiply Words in the Characterizing of the Books here expoſed to Sale, is altogether needleſs. I ſhall therefore only ſay this much, that after ſo many (more eſpecially of late) Sales of the like kind with this, I have notwithſtanding at this time, here adventured on this preſent Gratification of the Bookiſh and Ingenious Readers with the Sale of the Books in the preſent Catalogue contained: upon aſſured Hope and Expectation of a Reception ſuitable, and in ſome degree anſwerable to the preſent incident Coſts, Hazards, and Trouble; by which means the Buyers themſelves will equally conſult their own Intereſts, by the continued Frequency of ſuch like Opportunities as theſe, ſo manifeſtly benificial to them in their buying of Books, and ſo naturally tending to the Promotion, Augmentation, and Melioration of their Libraries. Thus detaining the Reader no longer from the Peruſal of the Catalogue it ſelf (the time of Sale near approaching) I ſhall in the mean time bid him only Farewel.

Conditions of Sale.

I. THat he who bids moſt is the Buyer; and if any Difference ariſe, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book or Books ſhall be forthwith expoſed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwiſe expreſſed (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe before they be taken away, the Buyer ſhall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the Money for the Books ſo bought, is to be paid by the Buyer within a Fortnight after the Auction is ended, at the place where they were ſold, where conſtant Attendance ſhall be given for that Fortnight, Day by Day, from Nine in the Morning till Twelve, and from Two till Six in the Evening, for Receipt of the Mony, and Delivery of the Books.

IV. The Books, for ſatisfaction of the Buyers, will be expoſed to view from Thurſday next, from the Hours of Nine in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two in the Afternoon to Six.

This Sale begins on Monday the 21*ſt* of this Inſtant May, at the Sign of the White Hart, at the Corner of Watling-ſtreet, over againſt St. Auguſtin's Church, near the South Side of of St. Paul's Church-yard, and continues daily till all the Books are ſold, from the Hours of Nine in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two to Six in the Evening.
